Headline:
Bright with some warm sunshine. Cloudier in the west.

Today:
Dry and bright with sunny spells developing through Fife, Dundee and Angus. A cloudy start in the west with patchy light rain and drizzle over the hills, but mainly dry in the afternoon. Breezy and feeling warm in any sunshine. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Mainly dry with variable cloud, the best of the clear spells in the east during the evening. Low cloud could become extensive overnight with a little drizzle over the hills. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Sunday:
Another warm or very warm day in the east with bright and sunny spells. However, it will be windy and any low cloud will take a time to clear. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Heavy rain soon clearing into the North Sea on Monday. Then bright with scattered showers, although more persistent rain possible on Wednesday.
